You do not have to give us personal information to visit our web site. If you choose to provide us with additional information about yourself through an e-mail message, form, survey, etc., we use that information only to respond to your message or to fulfill the stated purpose of the communication. The information provided is handled on a confidential basis within The Ohio Sleep Society. However, e-mail is not necessarily secure against interception. If your message is sensitive, you may prefer to send it by postal mail instead.

We request information from the user on our order form. This information is used for billing purposes and to fill customer's orders. If we have trouble processing an order, this contact information is used to get in touch with the user. We follow generally accepted industry standards to protect the personal information submitted to us, both during transmission and once we receive it. No method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure, however. Therefore, while we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

The Ohio Sleep Society does not disclose, give, sell, or transfer any financial information about our visitors, unless required by law enforcement or statute. The Ohio Sleep Society may share email addresses with other sleep societies for sharing of sleep-related information and education.
